There will be a sparkling exhibition at Seaside tomorrow night and a number will go over from Astoria.

Patronize home industry by buying Owl extracts, manufactured in Astoria. All first class grocers carry them.

Appricots have arrived in the market. They would have looked better if they had been picked a month later.

You can get, at Frank Hart's anything in photographic supplies. We just received a full line of Eastman's Kodaks, etc.

Cucumbers were received on yesterday's steamer and sell for the moderate sum of 15 cents each, two for schwei bits.

Ladies of Astoria express themselves as well pleased with the bargain offered at the Bee Hive. New goods received every day.

The last steamer brought a shipment of Mission Brand Lemons. Experts claim they are the finest that ever came to this market.

Regular meeting of Beaver Lodge, No. 35, I. O. O. F., meets tonight at 8 p. m. Work in the Initiatory degree. Election of Officers.

The Owl favoring extracts are considered the best and strongest by all who have used them. Ask for the Owl at your grocers and take no other.

Mrs. Tillie Forth has sold the lot on the corner of Astor and Eighth street, occupied by Chas. Wesche, to the Northern Pacific Brewing Company for $10,000.

The Hess restaurant, on Eleventh street, is considered the family restaurant of Astoria. The best meals and the best service in Astoria, 120 Eleventh street.

The revival services at the Methodist church last evening was largely attended. Rev. Dr. Toy preached a most eloquent and convincing sermon and was listened to attentively by the large audience.

Anyone wanting to get a fat job at Panama in various lines of occupation will have an opportunity of doing so. A civil service examination will be held in Portland on June 14 for positions.

The best is always the cheapest, and when you buy the best just as cheap as inferior goods it is an opportunity that people should avail themselves of. The announcement of P. A. Stokes is an unerring guide to purchasers.

Only a few days remain of the great evangelistic meetings which have been productive of much good in Astoria. Dr. Toy should be heard by everyone. A large choir led by Mr. Dickson and Mrs. Geo. H. Watkins will furnish music.

John L. Sullivan and his vaudeville troupe is booked for Fisher's opera house one week from next Monday, June 6. The last time John was here he was disguised in the garb of a fireman on the A. & C. road. Not that he was accustomed to that business but the constable was anxious to interview him.

Rev. O. E. Hanhelm, pastor of the Lutheran Bethany church of Uppertown, was unfortunate to hit his knee with a spade about three weeks ago. He did not think it was serious and did not attend to it for nearly a week. Dr. Finch was consulted and Mr. Hanhelm has been confined to his bed for nearly two weeks.

Some time ago E. P. Parker made a proposition to redeem certain property owned by him to the common council by paying about 50 per cent of the cost of the improvement. The council rejected the proposition, and yesterday Harrison Allen, as his attorney, deposited $432.40 with the auditor and police judge to redeem the property.

A petition is being prepared by J. Q. A. Howby to be presented to the chamber of commerce, both at Astoria and Portland, asking that the government place the bar dredger Chinook at work on the bar during the summer. If Portland raises no objection it is possible the result may be accomplished.

Prof. J. Adrian Epping of Portland was in the city yesterday. He has a large class of vocal students here.

A contract has been awarded to Birch & Jacobson by W. H. Copeland to raise the Hawthorn building recently purchased by him to conform with the plans he has had prepared for the construction of a three-story building on Commercial street, adjoining the Palace restaurant, running from Commercial to Bond street, the Hawthorn building to form a part of the block. It is very probable that work on the new building will be commenced this fall.

There will be an entire change of program at the Star tonight. The Heim children, whose brilliant acting has been the admiration of the large audiences, will appear tonight in "My German Sweetheart," one of the finest productions ever witnessed in the city. DeMora and Graceta, who have astounded the people by their versatile acrobatic performances, will present new features. The bill at the Star this week is one of unusual merit and must be seen to be appreciated.

The city is full of peddlers and families are constantly annoyed by them. Yesterday two men made an application to Chief Hallock for a pedler's license to sell shirt waists, but refused to pay the price and the chief refused to allow them to ply their vocation in the city. There are several book peddlers in the city and they are the greatest nuisance in the business. If the families of Astoria would refuse to buy from them or even allow them on the premises, the nuisance would soon be abated.

Capt. Fred Brown of the Astoria hose team received a letter yesterday from H. W. Kerrigan, manager of athletics at the Portland fair, acknowledging the receipt of the rules to govern the tournament. Mr. Kerrigan states that teams from Oregon City, Walla Walla, Rosaling, Vancouver, Everett and Victoria had notified the committee that they would send crack teams. Capt. Brown expects to have the best team that ever participated in a hose race, which he claims are sure winners. Considerable interest is being manifested in the tournament.
